

Syllabus

SOC O 544/744 : Sociology of Human Migration

Unit-I

- Concept of Migration : Conventional View and Changing Conception
Migration Data : Sources and Problems relating to Measurement

Unit-II

- Major Typologies : Spatial, Temporal, Purposive and Stream Criteria
Broad Trends and Patterns : At Global Level with special reference to India

Unit-III

- Theoretical Formulations : Classical, Socio-economic & Developmental (Contributions of Revenstein, Stouffer, Everett Lee,
Lewis, Harris and Todaro, Zelinski, Davis and Push-Pull Factor theory).
Determinants of Migration : Ecological, Demographic, Social, Economic and Political

Unit-IV

- Consequences of Migration : International context - Brain-Drain and Critique :
International context - Social, Economic and Political Migration Policy : Need and Challenges